Adams Still in the Race.

Mr. Wm. Adams, of Cynthia, is still in the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky. In an interview given out at Lexington a few days ago Mr. Adams said there was nothing in the report published in the Louisville papers that because the State Executive Committee has called a primary instead of a convention, he would quit the race. Mr. Adams announces his intention of staying in the race to the end, has not withdrawn and has no intention of withdrawing.

Parks Hill Directors Elected.

At a meeting of the directors of the Parks Hill Assembly held this week in Carlisle directors were elected as follows: W. I. Dorsey, H. M. Taylor, J. E. Ross, W. H. Harris and Dr. J. Santa Glenn. A meeting will be held later to select a manager, secretary and treasurer.

"Bad Jake" Noble Captured.

Jake Noble, slayer of Jailer J. Wesley Turner, Jr., of Breathitt county, who escaped on the day of the killing, November 8, and who has been hunted ever since in the mountain counties of West Virginia and Kentucky, was run down by officers at Williamson, West Virginia, Tuesday and the Sheriff of Mingo county, W. Va., wired Sheriff Thomas Hudson of Breathitt county, to come for his prisoner, who is in the Mingo jail.

Noble, who had killed two men before he shot down the Breathitt jailer, lost his liberty through the habit of drink that caused him to murder Turner. On the day before Christmas he overtook a constable walking toward Williamson, and being drunk enough to be talkative, he told the constable he was "one of the meanest men that ever left Kentucky," that he "had killed three men and that he would never be taken alive." The constable immediately reported the occurrence to the sheriff of Mingo county, who wrote to Breathitt county asking for a photograph of Noble and his description.

In the meantime the stranger was kept under surveillance and when the photograph and description arrived he was arrested. His captors will be paid rewards aggregating five hundred dollars.

ANOTHER STORY.

A dispatch from Huntington, W. Va., yesterday says: "The authorities at Williamson, W. Va., deny that 'Bad Jake' Noble, the Breathitt county, Ky., feudist and outlaw, has been apprehended there."

First Democrat in 50 Years.

Charles F. Johnson, of Waterville, Me., was made the Democratic caucus nominee for the United States Senate, to succeed Senator Eugene Hale. He will be the first Democrat sent to the Senate from Maine since the Republican party was organized in 1856.

Mrs. Griffith's Will Probated.

The will of the late Mrs. Mary E. Griffith was probated Tuesday in the County Court. The testatrix, after providing for the payment of her just debts, sets aside $1,000 for the maintenance of the family burial lot in the Paris cemetery and gives a like sum to John S. Templeton.

The residue of her estate is then divided into three equal parts and one-third is given to Mrs. Lizzie Jett and Mrs. Kate Ingles, her nieces, the latter in the division to have $200 more than her sister.

The portion left to Mrs. Jett is to be reinvested in real estate, to go to Mrs. Jett for life and then to the children of her sister, Mrs. Kate Ingles.

She leaves one-third to her brother, John W. Reid, of Clark county, during the period of his natural life and at his death, it is to revert to her legal heirs.

The remaining one-third is left to her sister, Mrs. Louisa Robinson, of Lexington, and at her death it is to revert to her children in equal parts. That portion which would go to her son, W. S. Robinson, is to be invested by the executor in real estate which shall be the home of her nephew and at his death it is to go to his sister Mrs. A. L. Tucker of Lexington.

The will is dated April 17, 1903, and is witnessed by Denis Dundon and Anna Thornton.

A codicil dated June 8, 1905, and witnessed by E. J. Myall and Louis Kriener, sets aside the provision regarding the care of the cemetery lot and directs the executor of her estate to invest the sum of $500, the proceeds of which are to be used to keep in repair the family burying ground.

The codicil also revokes the original gift to her nephew, W. S. Robinson, and his portion is made absolute at the death of his mother. William Myall, cashier of the Citizens' Bank, is named as executor of the will.

Twin Sons Born.

The wife of Mr. John McCrane, of near Centerville, yesterday gave birth to twin sons, weighing 7½ pounds each. This is the first birth of twins recorded in Bourbon county under the new law, which went into effect January 1. Mrs. McCrane is the mother of twin daughters, now thirteen years of age.

Government Sues.

The Government brought suit at New York against thirteen steamship companies under the Sherman anti-trust law. The companies are charged with attempting unlawfully to monopolize the transportation of steerage passengers.

Auto Tires to Take Another Big Slump.

Mr. Giltner, of the Bourbon Garage and Supply Co., has said that they had been authorized by leading manufacturers of automobile tires to announce that after January 9, there would be another big reduction from the present prices of automobile tires. The decline will amount to a reduction of ten per cent on all outer casings and fifteen per cent on all inner tubes.

This is the second time since November that automobile tires have been reduced in price. The first reduction, which was made at that time, being 2 per cent from the prices which had prevailed all summer. This slump is occasioned by a further reduction in the price of crude rubber. During last summer the price of the tires advanced considerably and a reaction from those high prices is now setting in.

This news will be welcomed by owners of automobiles, as the cost of tires is from 75 to 90 per cent of the cost of upkeep.

CHICAGO NEWS LETTER.

Chicago, January 4.—The small representation of the West among the giant corporations whose New Year's dividend disbursements totaled $227,000,000 as against $200,000,000 last year was a striking anomaly, for the increase of dividends was due to the nine billion dollar crop. The "Morganizing" of one industry after another has taken away from Chicago the headquarters of many which nevertheless center in Chicago. The big packing concerns, chronically under federal indictment, comprises the one big independent and typically western industry not removed to Wall street. The annual reports of many companies explained the reason for the combinations which removed them from the west to the east under the fostering care of "high finance." Earnings, not upon the new capitalization but upon the gross business of the year, are significant. The United States Steel Corporation, headed by an ex-Chicagoan, Judge Gary, alone will pay dividends of $107,773,099 and 1910 its net earnings were $1,491,413 on a gross business for the year of $646,382,251, this being a margin of profit of over 20 per cent on the business done. The International Harvester Company, since the western harvester concerns were combined, has done an annual gross business of less than $60,000,000 on which total the margin of profit has been steadily increasing from 10 per cent in 1905 to 40 per cent for the last year. The margin of 2.33 per cent on a gross business of $250,000,000 shown by the Armour & Company annual report is a decided and perhaps significant contrast to these figures. For 1909 the Swift & Company margin on turnover was less than 2 per cent. The immunity of the eastern companies from prosecution as well as the profits of the big trusts suggest how great must have been the pressure upon the packers to join Wall street contingent. For five years they have been under fire but the announcement at the banquet in New York at which 95 per cent of the steel output was represented that "prices would be maintained" have escaped federal attention. The high prices of steel are included among reasons advanced for an increase of freight rates upon commodities in general use. To maintain steel prices the mills are now generally shut down causing the idleness of thousands of workmen east and west.

Toward reduction of the country's waste of life and limb in railway and industrial operations, which the League for Public Safety in Chicago declares to be possible, more active attention by state railroad commissions is being given this winter than ever before, according to bulletins of the League. The recent report of the Interstate Commerce Commission for the last year showing an increase of deaths of passengers in train accidents from 131 in 1909 to 227 in 1910 and of the total number of deaths on the railroads, passengers and employees, from 2701 to 3868 showed how imperative is the need for action. In New York state the upstate public service commission has called a conference for January 19 of interurban railway officials to discuss methods of safety in operation. In Indiana for two years the railroad commission has given unusually earnest attention to the matter of safety, recent disasters being attributed to disobedience of orders and the lack of safety signals and appliances. In Illinois the commission has investigated safety devices quite exhaustively. The law creating the Illinois Commission was enacted years before electric roads were dreamed of and legislation will be urged during the next legislature session to give the commission more authority to protect the public by compelling roads to properly equip themselves. For years the electric roads and the signal companies have dictated what should be done in the way of safeguarding travel and both were disposed to ignore any considerations other than their own wishes. The signal companies have been especially arrogant and have failed to provide safety stop appliances notwithstanding they have known that the problem in that regard has been solved by inexpensive, simple equipment.

Insurance commissioners of many states have been outspoken recently regarding the need for enactment of the uniform fraternal insurance bill adopted by the insurance commissioners' convention and endorsed by fraternal federations whose headquarters are in Chicago. In New York Superintendent of Insurance Hotchkiss said: "The truth is that while many advocates of fraternal insurance have long shut their eyes to it, the representative men of all these societies, as well as the heads of insurance departments in the various states, are now of one accord in the belief that unless prompt and wise action be taken by the states in the enactment of reasonable but at the same time mandatory laws, and by the societies themselves in the readjustment of their rates, as well as the other directions, fraternal insurance will within the next decade or two end in receiverships, with heavy losses of its millions of members and their dependents." In Pennsylvania the insurance department urged the enactment of the measure. In South Carolina Commissioner McMaster said: "It is said with full conviction that there are few managers of these associations today who deal frankly with the membership and who tell exactly what they know, or what they could learn by careful examination. The general situation would be wholly satisfactory if this were done. If the full facts were known to all who were members and to all who proposed to become members, there could be no complaint, and these most worthy institutions would be restored to the splendid plane of true brotherhood on which they were originally founded."

The exposure of the "tip trust" in Chicago just before the New Year's eve orgy in the cafes and dining rooms cost the proprietors of that ingenious check room graft thousands of dollars in spite of the maudlin generosity that the exposure didn't nip. But the "tip trust" is credited with cleaning up $2,000,000 during the last three years merely by supplying boys to grab the hats and coats of patrons and their tips. Many a sloppy celebrant with more money than sense has peeled off a $10 and even a $20 for a boy who performed the arduous task of hanging up his coats and giving his hat a rub.

The Dog Law.

Did you ever stop to think of the provisions of the dog law, which has been the basis for so much discussion throughout the State. Read the following from the statute:

"Any owner or harbinger of a dog, subject to be taxed, who shall fail to refuse to list the same with the assessor, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $10 for each dog he so fails or refuses to list for taxation; and any person who shall keep or harbor a dog upon his premises, and who fails or refuses to pay the tax thereon when due, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $25 for each offense; and, upon conviction, the judgment may include an order requiring such dog to be killed, which order may be executed by any peace officer, who shall be allowed $1 therefor, to be taxed at cost. It shall be the duty of the sheriff and his deputies, and each constable in his district, to kill or cause to be killed any dog the owner of which has failed or refused to pay the tax thereon when due, and for each dog so killed, without the order of a court, such officer shall be allowed by the fiscal court fifty cents to be paid out of the dog tax fund. For the purpose of this act, the tax on dogs shall be considered due on the first day of March of each year. Provided, however, the sheriff may collect such tax at any time and in such manner as taxes are now collectable by law."

Constipation Cure Free

With the first signs of constipation you resort to the home methods of relief, such as hot or cold water on arising, lots of stewed fruit with your breakfast, etc., but what do you do when these fail?

The majority then start on salts and purgative waters, then change to cathartic pills, etc. If you have gone through these various stages you know they were all useless, so far as permanent results go. Now you should try just once again, but try something practical and sensible, a remedy made and intended for the purpose you are trying to accomplish. Such a remedy, as thousands can testify, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is guaranteed to be permanent in its results. Its ingredients are such that by a brief use of it the stomach and bowel muscles are trained to again do their work normally, so that in the end you can do away with medicines of all kinds. That it will do this Mr. G. V. Dodson of Sanville, Va., will gladly attest, and so will Mrs. S. A. Hampton of Portage, O.

To those who are still skeptical there is a way to prove these assertions without a penny of expense: Simply send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and obtain a free sample bottle. After using it, if you are then convinced it is the remedy you need, buy a fifty cent or one dollar bottle of your druggist and continue to use it for a brief time until cured. The directions are simple and the dose is small. It is pleasant to the taste, does not gripe and is promptly effective, and these statements are guaranteed or money will be refunded. This remedy is over a quarter of a century old and is personally taken by more druggists than any other similar remedy on the American market. Because of its effectiveness, purity and pleasant taste it is the ideal laxative remedy for children, women and old folks generally. Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 11500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Woman's Power Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for women's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and strengthen Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

All the talking we can do in favor of FOX RIDGE will not convince you of its superior quality half so rapidly as a sample load.

BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT.
CONSOLIDATED CAUSES.

Alice Crick, Plaintiff,
vs.
Mary Sidener, Defendant.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale made and entered in the above styled action at the November, 1910 term of the Bourbon Circuit Court, the undersigned Master Commissioner of the Bourbon Circuit Court, will, on at the courthouse door in Paris, Ky., about the hour of 11 o'clock a. m., sell at public auction to the highest and best bidder, on a credit of six and twelve months for equal parts of the purchase money, the property described in said judgment and ordered to be sold in this action, to-wit:

A certain house and lot situated on Main street, Paris, Bourbon county, Kentucky, near the southern limits of the city of Paris, fronting on the Maysville and Lexington turnpike road 68 feet, beginning at the line of Mrs. N. Wood, formerly R. T. Davis, running N. with said pike 68 feet, thence back from said pike in a westerly direction a distance of 297 feet, then S. 68 feet, then E. 297 feet to the beginning, and adjoining Mrs. Wood on the one side and Mrs. Sharron on the other side, being the same property conveyed by the Paris Cemetery Company to Sarah E. Sidener by deed of date October 18, 1888, of record in the Bourbon County Clerk's office in Deed Book 70, page 483.

The purchaser will be required to execute bonds for the purchase price with good surety bearing interest from day of sale until paid and payable to the undersigned Master Commissioner. The share of the infant defendant, Mary Sidener, shall not be paid by the purchaser, but shall remain a lien on the property until she arrives at age, or until a guardian shall qualify and execute bond as required by the Civil Code.

Bourbon Man Elected President.

The directors of the Kentucky Racing Association met in Lexington Wednesday for a business session. The resignation of Judge D. Gray Faulconer as president of the Association was presented and accepted and Mr. Catesby Woodford, of Bourbon county, one of the most prominent horsemen in the State, was elected by the directors to succeed him.

Mr. O. H. Chenault was elected vice president; Mr. Garrett D. Wilson was elected secretary; Mr. Younger Alexander was elected treasurer, and Mr. James P. Ross was elected superintendent.

The spirit of the meeting indicated very plainly that a number of prominent horsemen believe that racing on a high plane can yet be maintained and that the historic old Kentucky Association is one of the places on which the sport can be continued.

Shortage is Found in Accounts.

A shortage in the accounts of Rev. Jack Sweeney, former Fish and Game Commissioner of the State of Indiana, and brother of the late J. S. Sweeney, was found last week, when examiners appointed by the State to look over his accounts made their report. A dispatch from Indianapolis to the Cincinnati Enquirer Sunday was as follows: "Examiners employed by the State Board of Accounts have reported to the latter a shortage of more than $7,250 on the books of Rev. Jack Sweeney, of Columbus, former Fish and Game Commissioner of Indiana. W. A. Dehority, Chief of the board, refused to discuss the matter today.

"Rev. Sweeney is one of the most prominent men in Indiana, having been a leader in the Christian church for many years. He is the father-in-law of former Lieutenant Governor Hugh T. Miller and son-in-law of the late Joseph I. Irwin, multimillionaire, who died recently. During President Harrison's administration Rev. Sweeney was Minister to Turkey. He took up the work of Fish and Game Commissioner because of a natural interest in it.

"Rev. Sweeney, it is said, is ready to make good the shortage as soon as the board presents the matter to him. He has employed attorneys here, who are said to have asked the Indianapolis police to arrest Sweeney's former Chief Deputy, E. E. Earle, and his wife. The Earles, it is alleged left here about a month ago supposedly for Mexico. Earle obtained a divorce three months ago and married Miss Meellan two or three days afterward.

"Rev. Sweeney turned the office here over to Earle to run, and Earle is said to have had charge of all the funds. After he was succeeded in office by a Democrat Earle started to form the Farmers' Fish and Game Protective Association for the purpose of bringing about the repeal of the present Fish and Game Commission law.

"Sterling R. Holt, an officer in the organization, said that Earle had all the money paid in by members. The amount was between $200 and $300. Practically all of the shortage is said to have come from failure to report hunters' licenses in this county."

The members of the Kentucky Corn Growers Association, who were in Lexington to attend the State Corn Show, met at the College of Agriculture at State University Wednesday evening and elected officers for the association for the ensuing year as follows:

President, F. M. McKee, of Versailles; vice president, Asa Duncan, of Shelbyville; secretary, Prof. George Roberts, of the College of Agriculture, Lexington; treasurer, A. H. Gilbert, of the College of Agriculture, Lexington.

District vice presidents—G. N. McGrew, Mayou, First district; J. O. Duncan, Lebanon, Second district; W. H. Clayton, Hebron, Third district; L. D. Sandman, Onida, Fourth district; F. A. Hall, Olive Hill, Fifth district.

Former Parisian Weds Lexington Woman.

The marriage of Dr. J. Ed Ray, formerly of Paris, now of Sugar City, Col., to Mrs. Florence Sheppard, of Lexington, occurred on Monday, January 2, in Kansas City, Mo., the Rev. Dr. Neal officiating. The wedding was the culmination of a pretty romance of other days, Mrs. Sheppard and Dr. Ray having been sweethearts years ago.

Dr. Ray formerly resided in Paris where he was engaged in the practice of his profession. About twelve years ago he went West for the benefit of his health and has since resided at Sugar City, Col. In the past few years he has made frequent visits to Kentucky and this city.

Mrs. Sheppard is a very popular woman of Lexington, and prominently connected. She was visiting her niece Mrs. Minnie Hicks, at Kansas City at the time of the wedding, but had been living in Lexington for several years previous, and was expected to return to that city within a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray returned to Colorado and will make their home in Sugar City.

Goethe's Voluminous Product.

Besides the books which are best known to English readers, "Faust," "Wilhelm Meister," etc., Goethe is the author of 44 dramas, melodramas and farces, and any amount of travel and criticism, and even his poetical writings constitute a sort of enormous dumping, with very few currents indeed in proportion to the dough.—Buchanan.

Richmond Court.

The Circuit reports the Richmond Court as follows:

"Monday proved a good court day in the Madison County Slave Stock Market. There were about eight hundred cattle on the market and they sold from a quarter to a half dollar more on the hundred than a month ago. Plenty of buyers from all over this section of the state. Stock hogs brought as high as 75, but sheep sold low, bringing from $2.00 to $3.50 per head. The mule market brought out some tip top ones, and the owners asked good prices. Many changed hands at top figures. Mule buyers here were Ben Bright of Boyle, Claude Williams of Woodford, Senator Cook Hubble of Lincoln, Wm. Burton of Lancaster. Horse buyers were Joe Jordan of Jessamine, Shelby Harrison of Lexington, and Mr. Burton."

$15,000 Fire at Pittsburg, Ky.

The town of Pittsburg was visited by a disastrous fire Wednesday afternoon that threatened the entire town. The fire originated from a defective flue in the postoffice, and swept two squares. Dynamite was used to check the progress of the flames. The total loss is estimated at $15,000 with $2,500 insurance.

Double Murder Near Corbin.

The finding of the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Warren in their partly burned home, near Corbin, Monday, reveals the most fiendish crime that section has known in many years. Warren's skull had been crushed in and his wife's throat cut from ear to ear. Perpetrators of the crime, whose motive was probably robbery, had scattered oil about the rooms in hope of covering their crime, but the building failed to burn. Bloodhounds placed on the trail could not take up the scent because of the steady rainfall.

Monday night Will Lytle, a young man seen in the vicinity of the Warrens' home, was arrested as a suspect and taken to Harlan county where he was put through a grilling examination. He has made several conflicting statements.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren came from Harlan county about one year ago and located near Corbin. The home was removed from the highway. Warren had sold some stock a few days ago and was thought to have had money concealed in his home.

Police Court Records Stolen.

The office of O. H. Swango, Police Judge of Jackson, was entered Sunday night and all the records of the office, including the order book, bond and execution book, were taken. The theft was only discovered Monday when the judge entered his office for the first time since Saturday. No clue has yet been secured as to the perpetrators. It is generally believed that certain bonds which were shortly to have been forfeited were the cause of the theft.

A Correction.

A misstatement occurred in our report in the issue of the News of Friday of the trial of George Current, a laborer, in the county court, charged with the theft of a quantity of copper wire from the Bourbon Female College. In the report the News stated the negro charged with the theft had disposed of the wire to Max Munich, a junk dealer, and that it was found concealed in a barrel when his premises were searched by the officer. In this, however, the News was misinformed. The wire referred to as being concealed, it has later developed, was not the same as disposed of by the negro to Munich, but was purchased of Mrs. W. W. Massie several days before. These facts were brought out at the trial, in which Munich assisted in the prosecution of the negro, and bill of sale from Mrs. Massie was produced in court. The statement made by the News in the issue of Tuesday as to Munich disposing of the wire to Munich was wrong and we take this occasion to make a correction.

Bourbon Fiscal Court Meeting.

At the meeting of the Bourbon Fiscal Court yesterday in regular session Justice L. J. Fretwell presided in the absence of Judge Dennis Dutton, who is in Texas on business. Squires E. P. Thompson, J. J. Redmon, W. H. Squires, O. B. Lloyd, B. F. Stimp and Geo. K. Redmon were present.

—Sheep claims amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $351.50 were allowed and ordered reported to the Auditor of Public claims for payment. They were as follows:

John Woodford, $72.00; L. B. Murphy, $125; Catesby Woodford, $110; B. F. Hopkins, $13; Lee Craven, $6.50; James Litter, $24; W. D. McIntyre, $7.00; J. Miller Ward, $81.75; R. B. Turner, $48; John Woodford, $51.

The report of Turnpike Supervisor Claude F. Redmon was read accepted by the court and ordered filed. County Treasurer Silas Bedford was ordered to borrow from the Garth Fund the sum of $8,000 at six per cent interest and payable December 15, 1911. An order was also entered for the payment of interest on a warrant executed to Geo. B. Alexander and now held by the Garth Fund, from December 29, 1910, until paid.

Warrants were ordered drawn for $10 in favor of the Bourbon Bank to pay overcheck and also interest in the sum of $710 payable to the Treasurer of the Garth Fund for interest to January 1, 1911.

The sum of $1,000 was appropriated for the use of the Turnpike Supervisor for repairs during the month of January. The court also ordered the purchase of an Elliott-Fisher book typewriter for use in the office of the County Clerk.

Squire Thomason was appointed as a committee to rent the property of the county in Millersburg and Squires Redmon and Thomason to look into the matter of the need of the county to purchase a rock crusher and report to the court at the next meeting. After allowing claims to the amount of $1,944.47 court adjourned.

First Game of the Season.

The basket ball season will open for Paris High School Friday night at 7:30 when the Mason County High School team will try to even things up with Paris team for last year.

The local team has been at hard practice for several weeks and is in good shape. The team has changed since last year and there will be several new faces in the line-up Friday night.

Miss Rice, who played center last year, is out in school yet but will enter about the first of March. Miss Paul who starred as forward last year is not playing ball this season nor is Miss McGinley who played guard, the old players who are back and playing are Miss Runnans at forward and the newer sisters, two of the best guards in Central Kentucky.

This nucleus insures a fast reliable team. Among the new candidates the most promising are Miss Keller, who is trying for center and Misses Collins and Denton who are playing forward. A good lively game is promised. Music before the game and at intermissions will be furnished by the High School Band. Wallis, instructor in the gymnasium at Paris High School this year. The public is cordially invited to enjoy the opening game. Admission 25 cents. Gates open at 7 o'clock. Game commences at 7:30.

Eloping Under Difficulty

So you see George, dearest, there is simply nothing for us to do. Father won't give his consent, and we'll have to give up, I suppose.

"Give up! Good heavens, girlie, what sort of stuff do you think I am made of? Here I have been loving you ever since you were born, and you think just because the old idiot of a father of yours said 'No with a capital N' that I am going to calmly take my hat and bid you a tearful farewell? Not on your life."

"Oh, you silly old darling! Of course you won't."

"By Jove, Elaise, I have it! We will elope," said George wildly.

George went to New York on an earlier train getting off at a few stations ahead and waiting for the one Elaise had taken. Arriving in New York at 4:30, they took a taxicab, first visiting the City Hall for their license, and soon after were registered at the Plaza Hotel. The time for their marriage was fixed for that evening, as they were to board the steamer that night, the sailing hour being some time before dawn.

Entering the door of the hotel they met a number of people, one of whom rushed up and said:

"Hello old man! Well, of all the luck! Where in the deuce did you drop from?"

"Well, Buck, old chap, how are you? Haven't seen you for four years."

Finally to their great relief, Mr. Buckman saw a friend and excused himself for a moment.

They retired to their suite and Elaise said:

"I think that would be sort of fun, it's 4:30 and we haven't even telephoned the rectory. Do it now, dear."

George promptly called up only to be told the minister had been called away to see a sick person and the time of his return was most uncertain.

"Home! Now? Why, dear, do you realize we have been seen here together? Never! We will go to Europe as brother and sister. Come, darling, you won't be a quitter now. You know I love you and—"

"Yes, yes, I know. Well, come, let's go then. I'm so nervous."

An hour later they were in a taxicab with the admissible Mr. Buckman bound for the steamer. Going aboard at once, they went to their rooms. George giving Elaise a hurried kiss at the door and joining the waiting Buck for a smoke and a stroll.

Elaise, left in her room alone, threw herself down on the bed and had a good womanly cry and promptly fell asleep, clothes and all on. About 3 in the morning she awakened and was horrified to find that she had slept hours. She sprang up and began to inspect the room. There were her two bags and here was her trunk. Her trunk—heavens! why that was not her trunk. It was marked "O. R." She sent for George.

"What is it, darling? Are you ill?"

"No, no, George, but look at this trunk. It isn't mine. We brought it on the cab and mine must be at the Plaza."

No trace of it could be found and no satisfaction gotten over the telephone at the Plaza. He reached the hotel and found the trunk—departed—helped, coaxed and threatened the chauffeur to break all records in getting back to the steamer. He broke them and was arrested for speeding. He was wild with excitement. He must make that steamer. Reaching there, his worst fears were realized. The steamer was just turning out into the stream. Completely dismayed and dazed, he began inquiries as to how to catch it. As in a trance he began the trip in a tug, the steamer being caught at quarantine, and then was wound up in a pair of arms, and a weeping voice whispered:

"Oh, darling, I have been nearly out of my mind. It was simply agony."

The happiness of the following few hours was short-lived. George became furiously jealous, and with due season, Buckman was Elaise's shadow and George was becoming madder and madder. Elaise was thoroughly enjoying Mr. Buckman and teased George unmercifully for his sulking and jealousy, but he would not be appeased and was in constant state of ante-nuptial wretchedness. On the third day out a brilliant idea occurred to him. He was delighted. He would fix old Buckman. Make love to Elaise, would he? Well, he'd show him. A visit to the captain was made and a long discussion followed. At dinner he said:

"Dearest, put on that white gown of yours tonight, will you, for me?"

"Rather dressy, isn't it?"

After dinner George took Elaise for a stroll and carelessly suggested they go to the captain's room on the upper deck. When they reached the floor, he said:

"Sweetheart, I am going to give you a horrible shock. Brace up. Do you know what's on the other side of that door? Well, it's the chapel of this ship. He's going to marry us right in there, do you hear?"

"Marry us?"

"I've fixed it all up with the captain."

"Good heavens, George, you are insane!"

"Yes, I am, that's the word — insane with jealousy. I tell you I am going to marry you tonight. Then that blooming idiot can make eyes at you from morning to night and I shan't care. Come."

And she went.

It seems to us that every day we hear of a new make of automobile.

Faith Helps.

Faith in other people helps. Any good man or woman you believe in is a soul tonic. Pessimism and cynicism are poison miasms of a diseased personality. By them we are self-inoculated with deadening germs stupefying microbes.

Intentional Blinding.

Intentional blinding to escape conscription for the army is still met in Egypt. The means employed are either the placing of a hot needle on the cornea, producing a dense white leucoma, or a puncture often involving the lens, or by the introduction of lime or an irritant vegetable juice in the eyes.

The "Country Churchyard."

Those who recall Gray's "Elegy in a Country Churchyard" will remember that the peaceful spot where "the rude forefathers of the hamlet sleep" is identified with St. Giles' Stoke Poges, Buckinghamshire. In the prosaic pages of a recent issue of the Gazette there appears an order in council providing that ordinary interments are henceforth forbidden in the churchyard.

Coal in Georgia.

All the coal mined in Georgia is high-grade bituminous and makes a good steam fuel. As bunker coal it has no superior in the South Atlantic states. It also makes excellent coke, and about 20 per cent. of the output is made into coke which is sold to the furnaces at Chattanooga and other points in Tennessee and Georgia.

Cure for Scratches.

Scratches are caused by exposure to cold and wet, local irritation or low condition, all of which should be avoided if possible. In simple cases apply cloths wet with a weak solution of sugar of lead and in winter cover to keep out cold. When cracks have appeared, apply a similar lotion with the addition of a few drops of carbolic acid. In case of discharge or pustules, make a lotion of chloride of zinc instead of the lead; finely powdered charcoal may be sprinkled over the cloths.

The Secret of Youth

Do you ever wonder how you can remain young, or why other women older than you, look younger than you do? The secret can be put in a few words: "Preserve your health, and you will preserve your youth."

By "health" we mean not alone physical health, but nerve health, as, sometimes, magnificently strong-looking women are nervous wrecks.

But whether you are weak physically or nervously, you need a tonic, and the best tonic for you is Cardui. It builds strength for the physical and nervous systems. It helps put flesh on your bones and vitality into your nerves.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"My mother," writes Mrs. Z. L. Adcock, of Smithville, Tenn., "is 44 years old and is passing through the change of life."

"She was irregular and bloated and suffered terribly. My father stepped over to the store and got her a bottle of Cardui, which she took according to directions and now she is up, able to do her housework and says she feels like a new woman." Try Cardui in your own case.

Christening the Baby.

A country clergyman relates the following incident as being absolutely founded on fact:

Having arrived (says he) at that point in the baptismal service where the infant's name is conferred, I said:

"Name the child."

"Original Story," said the sponsor-nurse.

"What do you say?" I asked in surprise.

"Original Story," she repeated in clear, deliberate tones.

"It's a very odd name, isn't it? Are you sure that you want him called by the name of Original Story?" I queried.

"Original Story—that's right," she declared.

"Is it a family name?" I persisted.

"Named after his uncle, sir," explained the woman in charge, getting red in the face.

And so as Original Story I christened that unoffending little fellow. It was some weeks after this event that I made the acquaintance of the said uncle—a farm laborer in another village—whose name was Reginald Story.

My child had been taught to be careful about spilling water on the floor. One day she was taken to see the Mississippi river, which flowed by the city where she lived. Upon reaching the bank of the river where it could be seen in all its wide expanse, she exclaimed:

"Oh, who spilled all that water?"

"I suppose you're one of those dits that touch wet paint to see if it's dry?"

"No, I'm not. I touch it to see if it's wet."

"What would you do if you had a lot of money?"

"I s'pose I'd begin to worry about how I'd get along if I hadn't."

"The Jagsons are the most enthusiastic suburbanites I ever came across. They are always experimenting, but are not very practical. Are they doing anything with their place this summer?"

"Yes, I believe they are trying to raise everything on it but the mortgage."

Abon Pen Adhem had discovered that his name led all the rest. "Well," he said, "alphabetically, that's where it belongs." Dropping a tear of sympathy for poor Xenophon, whose name was near the foot of the list, he kept on loving his fellow men.

"Gracious," exclaimed the second teacher in surprise, "how in the world did you ever get the children interested in it?"

"Why, I told them there was a chance of its coming and burning the school house down."

"John—John," whispered Mrs. Gidgeley, nudging her husband.

"What is it?" he sleepily asked.

"There's a burglar in the house."

"What do you want me to do—get up and run the risk of being killed?"

"No; but if you find in the morning that somebody has gone through your pockets, don't blame me."

Millersburg Council Hold Regular Meeting Wednesday When Treasurer Reports.

T. D. JUDY'S HOME BURNED

Masonic Officers Installed and Dancing Club Entertains—Millersburg News.

The Millersburg City Council met in regular session Wednesday night for the first meeting of the new year. All members of the board were present. Mr. E. M. Ingles, who was elected at the last meeting in December to fill the unexpired term of Postmaster U. S. G. Pepper took the oath of office which was administered by the City Clerk, Mr. J. T. Judy, who was re-elected to that office for the ensuing year by the unanimous vote of the board. The Council revoked the ordinance passed some months ago refunding to the taxpayers twenty per cent of the cost of construction of concrete walks around their property.

After considerable routine business the Treasurer's report for the year of 1910 was read and approved by the board. The report shows the little city of Millersburg to be in a flourishing condition financially and at the close of the fiscal year had a balance of $2,799.17 in the treasury. On January 1, 1910, the treasury showed a balance of $2,683.36. During the year of 1910 collections for taxes amounted to the neat sum of $2,755.18. For licenses the sum of $335.50 was paid into the treasury and the amount of miscellaneous sums aggregating $539.54 bringing the total to $6,313.88. The disbursements during the year just closed aggregated $3,514.71, leaving a total January 1, 1911 of $2,799.17 or an increase of $115.81 over the balance left in the treasury at the close of 1909. After allowing a number of outstanding bills the council adjourned.

The home of Mr. J. T. Judy, in Butler addition, one of the new suburbs of Millersburg, was totally destroyed by fire, with the loss of its contents, at 5 o'clock, Wednesday morning. The fire seems to have originated in the attic in the front of the building. Mrs.

Judy and children were at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Payne, near Shawhan. The home was occupied by Mr. Judy, who slept in the front of the building, and a colored porter, Sam Victor, who occupied a room in the rear.

About 3 o'clock in the morning Mr. Judy was aroused by the falling of something in the room. On looking up he saw the plastering falling from the ceiling. A moment later the blaze was visible above. The alarm was quickly spread but owing to the hour and severity of the weather the fire company was delayed in getting on the scene with the engine, on account of the intervening distance between the Judy home and the engine house.

But little was saved from the front of the building, but a good deal was taken from the back part. The building was a new one, Mr. Judy being one of the first purchasers of a lot when Butler Addition was sold on the market in April, 1908. He began building in the autumn of 1909 and moved into his home in the spring of 1910. It was a nice cottage home with all modern conveniences. Loss about $4,000, insurance $2,000 on building and $400 on contents.

The newly elected officers of Amity Lodge, F. & A. M., were installed Tuesday night in regular meeting. It was a busy night for the lodge. A love feast which began December 27 was continued. Three petitions for initiation were presented, also one demit petition. Considerable business was discussed and the meeting was an interesting one. The following constitute the officers and committees for 1911: W. M. W., V. Shaw; S. W. M., P. Collier; J. W. J. H. Campbell; Secretary, J. H. Burroughs; Treasurer, S. M. Allen; S. D. W. A. Butler; J. D. R. M. Caldwell; Chaplain, Rev. T. W. Watts; Tyler, Durward Mason; Trustees, F. F. Hurst, J. G. Allen, Dr. W. M. Miller; Hurst, Chairman; Finance Committee, O. R. Rankin, D. P. Jones, J. B. Gray; Sick and Relief Committee, Squire E. P. Thomason, P. L. Dimmitt, and Stewarts, T. R. Wilson and V. C. Barton.

The annual New Year's hop was given at the opera house Tuesday evening by the Millersburg Dancing Club. Notwithstanding the severity of the weather and the fact lagrippe is prevalent everywhere, all the surrounding towns were well represented on the floor. The opera house was practically void of visitors, the like of which was never seen here before, this, however, was largely due to sickness in so many of our homes. Many of the ladies who served as chap-ones, were either sick or had sickness in the home. The music, which was exceedingly good, was furnished by the Wright Saxophone Trio, of Columbus, O.

Following is a partial list of visitors at the hop Tuesday night: Misses Glenn Arthur and Mary Piles, of Mayslick; Messrs. Chanslor Parker, James Sallee, Andrew Carr, Harvey Rice and Alexander Marshall, Messrs. Arnold and Frazee Hart, Flemingsburg; Miss Eddie McCormick, Mr. Ernest Piper, Carlisle; Miss Mary Belle Sharp, Mr. Hal Thompson, Sharpburg; Misses Mattie Woodson Barnes and Bertha Botts, Owingsville; Misses Joe Jett and Blanton Collier and Messrs. Tom McKee, Fred McIlvaine and Harold Poindexter, Cynthia; Misses Edith Mayll and Dorothy Talbot and Mr. Harry Horton, Paris; Misses McFarland, Mary Belle Walker and Luta Oney, Lexington.

Mr. E. T. Sheeler takes this occasion to thank all who so willingly assisted in the saving of his home from destruction by fire on the night of January 4. Mr. Sheeler's home adjoins that of Mr. T. D. Judy which was totally destroyed by fire on the same night. Mr. Judy also desires to thank those who so ably assisted him in saving a part of his household goods.

Mrs. Mary Foster is improving slowly.

Mrs. Will Parker is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. C. Blackwell, at Paris.

Mrs. Russell Mitchell is confined to her home with an attack of lagrippe.

Mr. J. G. Smedley, who has been confined to the house for several days, is better.

Miss Bessie Purnell left Monday to resume her duties in the public school at Paris.

Several of our young men attended the New Years hop at Mayslick, Monday night.

Little Miss Mildred Louise Collier, who has been sick for several days, is some better.

Mr. E. M. Ingles, who has been confined to his home with lagrippe is able to be out again.

Miss Glenn Arthur, of Mayslick, arrived Tuesday as the guest of Miss Anna Jefferson.

Dr. Calhoun, of Louisville, was the guest of Miss Lula McNamara from Sunday till Tuesday.

Public School opened Monday, M. F. C. Tuesday, and M. M. I. Wednesday. All with good attendance.

Mr. J. H. Linville, who has been confined to his home for several months with typhoid fever, was able to drive to town Wednesday.

Miss Louise Warford left Wednesday for Chicago after spending the holidays at home.

Messrs. W. G. McIntyre and W. S. Judy attended the tobacco meeting at Lexington yesterday.

Mr. J. T. Judy has rented the Baptist parsonage and will occupy it as soon as his family returns.

Mr. Jasem Hutell of Mt. Sterling, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. M. E. Martin, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Messrs. J. H. Hunter and Arthur Craycraft left Tuesday for Lexington, where they have accepted positions with the Loose Leaf Tobacco House.

Mr. W. V. Bradley, of Paris, county manager of the Bourbon Home Telephone Company, was a visitor here Wednesday in the interest of his company.

Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Proctor served supper Tuesday night for the Millersburg Dancing Club in the vacant store room of Mrs. S. Sandusky. The menu was good and everything nicely prepared.

Cecil True Bill Dismissed.

Another chapter was closed in the Coebel assassination cases in the Franklin Circuit Court Tuesday, when Commonwealth's Attorney Robert Franklin asked that the indictments against Frank Cecil be dismissed. Because Cecil was shot to death in a restaurant in St. Louis several months ago, the indictment was ordered dismissed by Judge Benton.

Losses Kentucky Lands.

Falls Heiress to Modest Fortune

With her chief thought directed toward the pleasing of her boarders' palates and thereby eking out a modest livelihood for herself and little family, Mrs. Lucy Warford a boardinghouse keeper of Frankfort looks forward to a life of comfort by falling heiress to a life of $25,000. Accompanying her good fortune, however, came the echo of a sad affliction—the recent death of her mother.

Mrs. Warford received a special dispatch from Richmond, Ky., saying that through the death of her mother, Mrs. Allen Thomas, she had fallen heiress to $25,000.

The modest little woman would not discuss her good fortune other than saying she proposed to keep right on running her boarding house as though her mother had left her nothing.

Read Poem and Pardoned Convicts.

The other day Gov. B. B. Comer, of Alabama, who likes poetry, picked up Lord Byron's works and read "The Prisoner of Chillon." He was about to start on his annual tour of the State prison and the convict camps. The poem so deeply impressed him that after visiting the convicts he exercised "wholesale clemency, paroling one hundred long-term prisoners, forty of them convicted of homicide and twenty being life convicts.

These are the lines of Byron which so worked upon the Governor's human sympathies that he sat down and wrote out the documents liberating the prisoners:

My hair is gray, but not with years,
Nor grew it white
In a single night,
As men's have grown from sudden fears,
My limbs are bowed, though not with toil,
But rusted with a vile repose,
For they have been a dungeons spoil,
And mine has been the fate of those
To whom the goodly earth and air
Are banned and barred— forbidden fare.

Smiley—"So you just got back from a two-weeks' fishing trip, eh? Have any luck?" Grafton (gleefully)—"Only cleaned up a little over a hundred—and we didn't play every night, either!"

Mother Love.

Mother love hath this unlikeliness to any other love. Tender to the object, it can be infinitely tyrannical to itself and thence all its power of self-sacrifice.—Low Wallace.

From Business Point of View.

The English doctors have discovered acromegaly, a new and quite widely prevalent disease. It would seem that a disease with such a formidable name ought to be worth a whole lot of cure.

Not a Mean Man.

"Why do you argue with your wife? Don't you know it doesn't do you a bit of good?" "Sure I do. But I ain't got such a mean disposition as to deprive her of the pleasure."

Kill More Than Wild Beasts.

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, dust, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters, which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back if not satisfied. Only 50c at Oberdorfer's.

Vote to Cut Out 1911 Crop.

Fully two hundred accredited delegates, representing thirty odd Burley counties of Kentucky and several in Ohio and Indiana, were in Lexington yesterday to attend the big tobacco convention at the court house, called for the purpose of devising ways and means for the Burley tobacco growers.

The "Independents, dumpers and poe-lers" to get together upon a common ground for improving the present price of the weed and for mutual protection against the tyranny of the trust. The session yesterday afternoon was devoted to addresses by a number of prominent tobacco men and a vote to cut out the 1911 crops carried. A number of tobacco men from Bourbon county attended the meeting.

Cholera in India.

Cholera was first recognized by the Portuguese in India as far back as the middle of the sixteenth century. It has the peculiarity of following a well-defined route, with progress just equal to that of an average journey on foot.

Men Were Loony About Clothes.

Old-time cobblestones and mud demanded a thick, clumsy boot, and old Yankee leather was good stuff, all right enough, but it did not agreeably lend itself either to beauty or ease. A paper of 1850 tells of a statesman going to a big ball in velvet breeches, with a scarlet satin coat lining and scarlet bows on his pumps. Men then used to be almost as loony about clothes as women are now.

An Ancient Anaesthetic.

A Chinese manuscript lately discovered proves that anaesthetics were used in China seventeen hundred years ago. A certain concoction, it states, was given by the doctors before performing an operation, which rendered the patient unconscious. The anaesthetic was a simple preparation of hemp.

Nearer the Ground.

Edwin, aged seven, noticed grandpa trying to stoop to pick up something which had fallen to the ground, suddenly said: "O, wait, grandpa, let me pick it up for you. I haven't so far to stoop."

Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Fort Harrison, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it sure enough. I tried everything I could hear of for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but got no relief. A friend friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." Its positively guaranteed for coughs, colds and all bronchial affections. See and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Oberdorfer's.
